Assignment 1 Grading Criteria (10 marks)

INSE 6630: Recent Developments in Information Systems Security

Criteria	Mark
Technicality • The selected incident should involve technical concepts. • The circumstances of the incident should be described completely. • The technical details of the issue should be is clearly explained.	4
Broader Impact Students should describe: • The impact of the issue. • How the issue was addressed (mitigations). • How the issue could have been prevented (if it could have). • The broader lessons one can learn from the issue.	3
Clarity The report should: • Include appropriate background and introduction. • Be clearly written and well organized. • Display student's proper understanding of the issue.	3

Technicality/ Broader Impact/ Clarity: 4/3/3   Total: 10

Note that the reports that are copied from other sources (even with grammatical changes) would not be considered complete and appropriate.